

PRESS INFORMATION FOR ORPHEUS IN THE OVERWORLD
BY DANTE GONZALEZ (HE/THEY)
Pronouns and Gender Diversity Cheat Sheet

Hello! We are thrilled to welcome you to Fresh Ink Theatre Company's production of Orpheus in the Overworld, written by Dante Gonzalez (he/they) and directed by Shira Helena Gitlin (they/them). This show is created by and for queer people. Over half of the cast and artistic team are part of the TGNC (transgender and gender non conforming) community and we want to provide you with relevant information to accurately and respectfully write reviews.

Please note that some actors may have different pronouns than the characters they are playing. Some bodies you see on stage may not visually align with your perceptions of gender identity, so please be cautious and proceed with care.

Creative Team

Director
Dramaturg & Sound Designer
Scenic & Props Designer
Lighting Designer
Costume Designer
Composer
Intimacy Director
Production Stage Manager
Assistant Stage Manager

Name (pronouns)

Shira Helena Gitlin (they/them)
AJ Helman (they/them)
Meg Lynch (they/she/he)
Z Weber (they/them)
Mikayla Reid (she/her)
Abacus Dean-Polachek (they/them)
Kayleigh Kane (she/her)
Micaela Slotin (they/them)
Katelyn Paddock (no pronouns)

Character (pronouns)

Orpheus (they/he)
Eurydice (she/her)
Daisy (she/her, he/him, ze/hir)
Hades (he/him)
Apollo (any)
Artemis (she/her)

Name (pronouns)

Elijah Brown (they/he)
Isabel Ginsberg (she/her)
Lucy Bertolet (she/her)
Kulfi Jaan (he/she/they)
Matthew Suchecki (they/them)
Rebekah Brunson (she/her)

When referring to Orpheus's gender, please use "transmasculine." When speaking of Orpheus at any point in their transition, please do not use the pronouns "she" or "her" unless directly quoting the script.

Apollo is a genderfluid character and is referred to as “Phoebe” in the Overworld. Apollo uses any pronouns including the neopronouns fae/faer.

If you have any questions, please contact Director Shira Helena Gitlin, shirahelenagitlin@gmail.com

More information about:

- They/Them Pronouns
- Neopronouns
- Using multiple sets of pronouns: 1, 2
- Referring to someone that has no pronouns

Tips for covering Trans and Nonbinary people:

<https://www.cjr.org/analysis/trans-nonbinary-subjects-tips.php>